Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor

Volume 6, Issue 1

October 6, 2014

Today's Program...

Mike Dabbs gave a strong introduction for our guest speaker, Joan Fitzgibbon, Principal at Northside School in Ann Arbor. Her topic was the STEAM program that was initiated this year at Northside (K-6) School. STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics) is an Ann Arbor variation of the national STEM program. Joan said she was very happy to have attended our active lunch meeting and happy to talk about this exciting new program at her school.

STEAM is a project-based learning program. The students are expected to use all of the components of STEAM to solve real-world problems. Each student group is expected to Collaborate, Comment and Create. Joan discussed the seven steps required for the successful completion of a project, which includes a public presentation of their solution(s). During the academic year there will be two project modules, each with a duration of approximately 10 weeks. A future goal will include mixing different class levels and student-to-student instruction across grade levels. Northside is a K-6 school, but it will expand to a K-8 school over the next few years. Initial parental feedback is positive, i.e. the students are excited about their projects.

The learning modules will include community and business partnerships. Some community partners include the University of Michigan, Michigan Tech Research Institute, and the Hands on Museum. The presentation was well-received and there were several questions from club members, which allowed Joan to expand on some specific elements of the STEAM program. District Superintendent, Jeanice Swift, also provided comments from the administrative perspective.

Guests at our Club... From Charmin Archer: Griffith Dick, a prospective member from Ann Arbor, Caroline Soyars of Circle K, Jonathan Pevarnek of Circle K, Marylyn Kimmins and Jim Kimmins, guests of Ellen Webb, and Jeanice Swift, Superintendent of the Ann Arbor School District.

Announcements...

- President John Goff reminded the members that attendance sheets are on our tables for reporting work assignments over the next three months (October through December).
- President John also announced that through the University of Michigan Board Fellowship program we will have UM student, Simon Chafetz, join our Board as an unofficial member. He will use his marketing skills to help as we transition into the new Kiwanis Center Building.
- William Hampton announced that we should all remember that October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, so we should wear pink during October.
- Dale Leslie reported that John and Claire Dahl are dealing with the birth of a grandson, Reese Dahl.
- Update from Last Week's Newsletter - There has been a delay of a month or so in implementing the District's new website address (www.mikiwanis.org). Continue using the old web address, www.mi.kiwanisone.org until further notice. The district's email address has changed to districtoffice@mikiwanis.org, please make a note of it. The previous email address will be discontinued on Nov. 1st.
- Volunteer Wanted - Be admired by your peers and the envy of your friends! The club Newsletter needs a volunteer to serve as occasional backup publisher. The ideal candidate would have a Windows-based computer, and a working knowledge of MS-Publisher or MS-Word. The club will provide the MS-Publisher software if you need it. Training available. Please contact John Kidle at the club or jkidle@gmail.com to discuss this opportunity.

Fines and Happy Dollars...

Fines: In honor of our guest speaker, Dale Leslie got the fines rolling by calling on former President Mike Dabbs to consider a motion to fine anyone that had not had the privilege of attending Ann Arbor Public Schools. In spite of an overwhelming "No" vote, the motion was ruled to have passed. After several minutes passed without the fines being collected, Nick Dever proposed to fine all members of the Fine Committee for not collecting the fines. Feeling the pain for the Fine Committee, Don McEwen proposed a friendly amendment that all club members should be fined. This was generally understood to be accepted by Nick Dever and the seconder of the original motion. President Goff called for a vote and the motion passed easily. Dan Dever then refused to pay because he thought by Robert's Rules of Order, the vote was to accept the amendment, but not yet pass the motion. He was quickly over-ruled and had to pay.

Happy Dollars: Bob Carr gave a dollar in honor of Fred King and noted that his (Bob's) birthday and Friday the 13th will occur next Monday. Chris Winkler was happy that internationally famous chef, Mario Batali, and his family chose the Cardamom: Fresh Indian restaurant owned by his daughter (Becky) and son-in-law (Binod Dhakal) for dinner following the UM-Minnesota football game. Fred Sanchez was happy to have shared time with his son and grandson at Afternoon Delight and the Hands-on Museum. Harry Cross was happy to have placed new books on "management" on the table near the entrance. They are free to any interested club member. Harry also has a coupon for free wiper blades from a service station in Ypsilanti. Garry Donner was announcing for Betty Jean Harper that a special "Blessing of Animals" service is to be held October 12 at 1:30 at the Bethel United Church of Christ. Dave Drake was happy that he and his wife both celebrated birthdays last week and he give $53 in celebration of their 53rd wedding anniversary. Kathy Barden-Perlberg was happy that the Livingston County news had reported on our club finding over $7,000 dollars in War Bonds in a cabinet donated to the club. Jim Kane was happy to see many members of our club honored at last week's meeting. Jane Talcott was happy for yesterday's celebration of Washtenaw Camp Placement's 52nd season and thankful for Kiwanis Support. Bill Robb was happy to hear Bob Gray's surgery went well today and he looks forward to Bob's return to club duties, which Bill is currently handling. John Goff was happy to have survived a Youth Retreat last weekend.

Stuff You Should Know...

Social Activities: Martha Petroski announced that she had four tickets left for the performance at the Purple Rose Theater, but people needed to contact her before 4pm today to reserve the tickets. Martha also announced that Club Member Alan Caldwell has opened a bakery at the corner of Packard and Granger, and we should stop in to sample his products.

Interclubs: Dave Drake announced that Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis Club will be hosting a Super-Interclub on October 28. Our club will host a Super-Interclub in December. Dave also announced that Dale Leslie plans to introduce a game next week that is intended to increase our attendance at interclub meetings.
