Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor

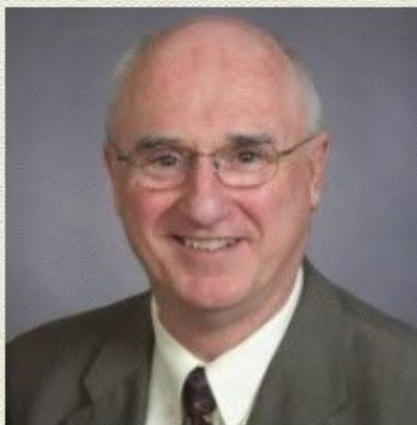

Volume 5, Issue 39

July 7, 2014

Today's Program...

No meeting today to allow member attendance at Al Dailey's funeral. Bob Gray provided this summary:

Susan and I attended Al Dailey's Funeral today and I also went to the visitation yesterday at the Nie Funeral Home. The slide show sent out in last week's Newsletter was shown at the visitation. There were many Kiwanians from our Club present at the visitation and the funeral services. Several of the other regional Kiwanis Clubs were represented as well as Kiwanis Officials from the Michigan District. At the service today, the Kiwanians were asked to stand flanking both sides of the path where Al's casket was carried out of the church. His daughter, Jennifer, gave a heart-wrenching eulogy for him. Sue, his son Geoff and his sister were all present. His presence will be missed by all of us.

Clubs...

Hamburg Interclub—Despite being just a short distance from Ann Arbor to Hamburg—and once sharing the same Kiwanis Division—over 30 years had past since the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor traveled to the Hamburg Kiwanis Club with an interclub. That drought ended on Tuesday, June 14, 2014, when the two clubs met over ham and eggs at the latter's regular meeting spot, the Hamburg Coney Restaurant. The hosts were chartered in the early 1980s and two of their Charter Members sat side-by-side at the meeting. Those A2 Kiwanians who made the trek were: Ray Argyle, Bob Gray, John Kidle, Dale Leslie, Bill Robb and Max Ziegler.
