Today's Program...

George Taylor, President of the Cobblestone Farm Historical Foundation, was our speaker. The all volunteer organization was formed 40 years ago, but Cobblestone Farm's history dates from 1844 when the Ticknor-Campbell house was built. Dr. Ticknor lived there with his family and sold the property to the Booths who then sold it to the Campbells in 1881. They kept the property and operated the 225 acre farm. The Joseph Buhr family bought 39 acres and donated the land to the City of Ann Arbor.

That property is now Buhr Park. In 1972 the Campbell family sold the house and the remaining 4 1/2 acres to the city and the historical foundation was formed in 1974. The farm is used for various activities, non-profit events and weddings. A farmers market is open on Tuesdays during the growing season.

Guests at our Club...

Marcey Terrien with the Ann Arbor Street Art fair, and Mary Gilligan

Announcements...

Next Monday we will be awarding a grant to the Pioneer High School Theater Guild.

Claire Dahl suggested that all members wear their purple and white next week in support of Pioneer High. Acting President Ann Mattson thought it was great idea except that it should be the forest green and gold of Huron High, or maybe the Columbia blue and white of Skyline. So pick your favorite high school, and dress accordingly.

Dale Leslie is arranging an interclub to the Hamburg Kiwanis Club on Tuesday, June 17th at St. Paul's Church located at 7701 E. M-36. The meeting starts at 7:30 a.m., and Dale offered to give a wake-up call to all those who are interested.

Bob Gray reminded us (from North Carolina) that the April-June attendance form should be turned in at the end of June.

Marcey Terrien is the volunteer coordinator of 55 year old (The Original) Ann Arbor Street Art Fair. Volunteers are needed at the Townie party of July 14th, and the Art Fair from July 16th to July 19th. This is the second year that Kiwanians have this opportunity and there are over 500 volunteer shifts. Sign up at the artfair.org website or call Marcey at 734-994-5260.

The Kiwanis Thrift Sale was the runner-up for the Reader's Choice "Best of Washtenaw County" for used furniture.

Detroit #1 Kiwanis Club will be hosting the 100th Birthday Party of Kiwanis International In January, 2015. Stay tuned for additional details.

Menu for June 16: tomato basil soup, deli sandwich platter, cookies, fresh fruit

Late Breaking News: While we were meeting Bob Johnson and the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor golfers took first place at the Kiwanis of Michigan golf outing.

Fines: Dale Leslie tried to fine all the attorneys except for those who had achieved the exalted position of judge. Ann Mattson was running the meeting, and for the first time this Kiwanis year, a motion to fine someone was defeated!!! Al Gallup then proposed fining all who weren't World War II veterans, and that was unanimously approved. Dan Dever didn't want to leave $.50 uncollected and proposed fining our two WW II vets.

Happy Dollars: Chris Winkler was happy that he remembered his 46th wedding anniversary. Jim Wolfington was glad for U-M docs who relieved him of a tumor. William Hampton bought some extra time to let us know about the Michigan Optimists Walk for Childhood Cancer on June 28th that starts at 10:00 am at Skyline, and the NAACP Juneteenth Freedom Celebration which will take place on June 14th from noon to 6:00 p.m. at Wheeler Park. Joe Medrano was happy about a 3 day mystery trip, a visit to the Jelly Belly factory and put in $5 for the Max Ziegler steak branding iron. Jane Talcott was pleased about the Washtenaw Camp Placement orientation with help from Pizza house and Peace Neighborhood Center. Fred King was elated that Friday the 13th was on the right day of the week, and offered up to $20 future happy dollars for confessed tree huggers. Rip Kinney thanked those who put on the scholarship program. Andrea Kotch Duda happy that her kids survived high school and/or graduated, and for putting her mother's house up for sale. Dale Leslie observed that the mystery trip was very appropriate for seniors.

Hospitality Information...

Long time Kiwanian Ray Steiner's Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, June 17th at 2:00 p.m. at the First Congregational Church located at 608 East William Street, Ann Arbor. Lee Bachman is reported to be feeling a little better. William Hampton said that Sandy Eldon says hello and sends his best wishes. Let Rose Marie Barhydt know of any hospitality items.

Presentations: Fred Miller and Alan Oman gave three minutes speeches. Fred thanked sponsors Larry Hill and Mike Dabbs. Fred is the third Kiwanian with a R-----n spouse. He is an MSU grad, but says he has paid more in tuition to U-M. Fred is a manufacturer's rep who is already involved with Meals on Wheels and other Kiwanis activities.

Alan was born in England, and came to Ann Arbor by way of Canada and Midland (Michigan). He has worked for various non profits and is the Executive Director of Early Childhood Programs at Washtenaw Intermediate School District. Alan is happy to be here with us and identifies with our mission of helping the children of the world.

Social Activities: Max Ziegler provided some history of the annual golf outing. It was started 30 years ago and initially was a social event with the Blenheim, Canada Kiwanis Club. The Blenheim Club would host a curling event. Max has chaired the Golf Committee for many of those years. This year's event will be held on Wednesday, September 17th. It will be Max's last year as Chair and he is looking for someone to step up to the tee, and become the next driver of the outing.
