U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services, an Update

Frank Castria, USCIS

Kathie Wilder introduced our speaker, Frank Castria, Community Relations Officer of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Frank Castria began his Federal government career in 2002, as an Immigration Inspector, with the agency that was formerly known as Immigration & Naturalization (INS). He continued as an Immigration Inspector once Customs and Border Protection (CBP) was created under the Department of Homeland Security in 2003. During his tenure as an Immigration Inspector, he worked at both the McNamara International Terminal at Detroit Metro Airport and the U.S./Canadian Land Border.

Kathie Wilder

In 2003, Frank began working for U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS), at the Detroit District office, as an Adjudications Officer, a title that later became known as Immigration Services Officer (ISO). As an ISO, he conducted daily interviews with the public regarding various immigration benefits.

In 2012, Frank entered into his current USCIS position, Community Relations Officer, in which he provides education and assistance, primarily through informational outreach regarding new and existing USCIS immigration programs and initiatives. As Community Relations, Officer Frank keeps an ongoing dialogue open between USCIS and the public, as well as community-based organizations, immigration service providers, and other governmental agencies.

Officer Castria spoke about the Department of Homeland Security, specifically U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. He also shared information regarding legal immigration to the United States and the Naturalization process—from the time a person becomes a permanent resident of the United States to when they become a citizen of the U.S., as well as the application, test, interview, and finally the Naturalization Oath Ceremony, which is the culmination of an immigrant's naturalization process. Officer Castria conducted a question and answer session afterward fielding many pertinent inquiries from the audience.

Happy Dollars...

Dale Leslie put in a special plea for each and every one of us to join him at Ann Arbor Bank, 3rd floor, at 10:00 AM as we begin to plan for our 100 Anniversary Celebration. He noted that this occasion does not happen too often and that he is not sure that he will be around for the next one, celebrating 125 years. He hadn't mentioned attending this meeting to any of the past presidents because he just expects that they will be there.

John Schenk has a Happy Dollar for having spent the past four days in South Carolina for the graduation of his oldest grandchild. Joe Medrano had ten Happy Dollars for returning from a two-week cruise through the Panama Canal. Each Happy Dollar is for the pound that he did not gain. Andrea Kotch Duda had the honor of spending an evening celebrating all of the many and major contributions that Michael Dabbs has made to world and especially to Michigan for all he has done for the Brain Injury Association. Over a thousand people attended this celebration. Through his work, many lives have been impacted.

Dave Drake had five Happy Dollars for something that he did with his wife last weekend for something that he thought he would never do: He spent two days up at the campus at, well he couldn't say it, but it was understood to be Michigan State University. His grandson was graduating from the school of education. He is going to be a Spanish Teacher. The commencement address was delivered by former MSU Football Star Kirk Gibson and it was a very stirring talk. Dave said that he has another grandchild up at that school so he said that he might have to change his thinking about that school.

Max Ziegler had ten Happy Dollars for the privilege of spending Good Friday in London where he met his granddaughter where she had been as an exchange student. He then took her to Germany for a week where he was able to show her from where her great-grandfather came.

Linda Ann Heldt, from the Utica-Shelby Kiwanis, had one Happy Dollar for having eight Key Club members attending Key Leader training. The other Happy Dollar is for the Utica-Shelby Kiwanis 60th anniversary celebration. It is on June 15 and it is on their website if anyone is interested in going. Tickets are $30. She also said that they have collected 38,000 pairs of shoes and she thanked our club for our contributions to this drive.

Mike Dabbs had $35 Happy Dollars in appreciation and thankfulness for his years in Kiwanis and for this club standing with and taking care of one another, even though he has not been all that active in the club.

Peter Schork decided to say three things so he put in a buck and a half. He thanked William Hampton for running for President. He told William that the will do a great job. He got word this morning that fellow Kiwanian Simon Eaglin has passed away. Peter went on to say that Simon was, among other things, the first Postmaster of Ypsilanti and that he had had an incredible career, he was a trendsetter and that he was an inspirational person. He asked us all to look for the notification in the newspaper when it comes out. Please note that funeral arrangements have been announced and they are noted under 'Hospitality News', above. And, lastly, Peter thanked Arlene Barnes for her work in last week's Scholarship presentations.

Gary Donner shared a short story about what his 94-year-old mother has recently gone through with C-Diff being mis-diagnosed. She finally got it correctly diagnosed and, fortunately, she is 90 to 95 percent recovered.
