Today's Program...

Rosie the Riveter

Claire Dahl

John Goff introduced our speaker, our very own "Rosie The Riveter", Claire Dahl. She described the dedicated American women who worked in the factories and shipyards during World War II. She began by giving us a little history, which we all should have known, that WWII began in 1939 with the German invasions of Poland, Denmark, Norway, Netherlands and France. This took only 6 weeks to accomplish because of air power. In response FDR went to Congress and requested 50,000 war planes to assist our allies and to keep America safe. Most said that it was an impossible dream. FDR called on the auto industry to figure it out. They used their expertise & built the Willow Run Bomber Plant. This factory made all of the components that went into the B-24 Liberator Bomber and moved them by huge conveyor belts along two assembly lines, each a half mile long. 20,000 workers worked in each of two shifts. On December 7, 1941 the attack on Pearl Harbor meant that this was no longer a foreign war. By May 1942 there was a shortage of men working in the war industries so the government directed patriotic messages to women to become workers in the factories. One of them was:

If you can run a sewing machine, you can master a rivet gun.

If you have made cookies in your kitchen, you already understand the mechanics of an assembly line.

If you can use an electric mixer, you can use a drill press.

If you can follow a recipe, you can "load a shell".

If you can work, you'll bring your father, brother, husband or boyfriend home more quickly!

Guests at Our Club...

Jerry Brown reported that there were no guests at our club today.

Hospitality...

Jane Talcott reported that Dale Leslie had notified her Don Faber passed away last Saturday. The memorial service for Don will be Sunday, June 11, at 3:00 at the First Presbyterian Church on Washtenaw Ave. We also learned that Dave Bell is retiring from the ministry after 20 years and is remaining in town.

Announcements...

- President Alan told us a special meeting of the Board of Directors considered a request by Buildings & Equipment Committee for additional funds to continue improvements at KCD, including preparations for a third tenant. He then pointed out on an architectural drawing where improvements are being made. He then asked Kathy Barden-Perlburg to talk about the recent tour at KCD for our volunteers. Jim Mattson then described the reaction from that tour as being quite positively impressive. Gretchen Preston congratulated Kathy for preparing and bringing the food that was provided to volunteers on the tour.
- President Alan reminded us of the proposal for us to be the Official Sponsor for a multi-year Warm The Children project. If approved, this would become a multi-year Kiwanis Club and Foundation project. Doing this requires a 2/3 affirmative vote of the members as is scheduled at the regular meeting on Monday, June 5, 2017. The details of this proposal were distributed to each table before last week's meeting (see pages 7 and 8). Members were urged to read the material.

~Announcements Continue on Page 5~

Fines...

Dale Leslie proposed a fine on anyone who has not served in the military. It passed unanimously. Dan Dever proposed that anyone who had not conducted, planned, or participated in a sports betting pool be fined 25 cents. That proposal was amended to include all of those who had participated in a sports betting pool. In a very close result, President Alan determined the fine had passed.

Happy Dollars...

Fred Sanchez told a joke about a husband and wife where the wife wanted to know what the husband would do if she died. Would he let the new wife drive her car, live in their house, sleep in their bed? The husband said 'probably' to each, but the final and most important to the wife was, would he let the new wife use her golf clubs? The husband replied, 'No, they are left handed'. Dale Leslie had two Happy Dollars—One for seeing Dick & Lois Brunvand this past weekend. (They now reside in South Haven, Michigan, Dick was a past President of our club and sends his greetings.) His second Happy Dollar was for his youngest son who turned, hard as it might be to believe, 36.

Betsy Ford had two Happy Dollars for recent events—One for not being selected for jury duty, and one for her mother-in-law who turned 100 last Friday. Larry French had two Happy Dollars for Nick Dever and Doug Ziesemer and many others who are getting space ready at KCD for our renters. They have done a lot of work there. Dave Bell is happy to retire from an organization, his church, that he started. He was happy to have received a standing ovation from the congregation on his last day there. He also got a standing ovation from us Kiwanians on his retirement and for staying here in Ann Arbor after retiring. His second Happy Dollar was for receiving a bouquet of flowers, on the occasion of his retirement, from Dale Leslie with a nice note that said, 'Your faith has made you, as well as many others, well.'

John Dahl had three Happy Dollars—One for his wife Claire who is going to represent Kiwanis and Kiwanis Scholarships at Skyline High School. She will let the students there know how to fill out the necessary paperwork and get it back to her. The second Happy Dollar is for Claire's mother who celebrated her 91st birthday last week (Claire's mother golfed with them and got a par). Claire had a par and a birdie but John didn't get either. His last Happy Dollar was for Claire who marched in a 'Rosie then Riveter' parade in Dearborn. Nick Dever had a Happy Dollar for Dave Bell who was a practicing attorney before he repented.

John Goff had 20 Happy Dollars for many things. First he wanted to thank Doug Hanton, Nick and Dan Dever, Peter Schork and everyone who has worked so hard for delivering on the success of Kiwanis West. Second: Jim Wolfington mentioned many, many famous people who came from the state of Wisconsin, but John only wanted to mention one because his dad graduated from High School with Liberace. The last Happy Dollar was for Brianna, his second daughter, who is about to graduate on June 11 from Dexter High School, pending final exams which are the week before.

Jerry McMahon had a Happy Dollar for last week's speaker, Ashton Marr. He said that he has been going to AA meetings for 27 years. Jerry said that AA has 23 million people attending meetings mainly for the mentoring programs. The older members mentor the younger ones. He believes Kiwanis could change the principals around a little bit and implement them here. He believes this would boost attendance because the program works.

Harry Cross had a Happy Dollar, which was postponed from last week, for Simon Eaglin. There were many stories and tributes told about Simon at his memorial service, but one that was not told was about a young boy, 10 or 12 years old, who lived in Simon's neighborhood. This boy's 'Stupid Gland' got raging and he started climbing all over Simon's car. He got on the fenders, the hood, and probably the roof. Finally the kid noticed that Simon was standing right there. The kid scurried to the ground and Simon started talking to him seriously, asking if his father let him do that at his house? Simon continued talking, but finally fell silent. The young boy asked Simon what he was going to do now and Simon said he was going to see if the kid could run back to his house faster than Simon could get over to his telephone.

The Government's War Bond Public Relations film was made at Willow Run. They saw a cute worker, named Rosie Monroe. They called her 'Rosie the Riveter' and had her star in the film. In 1943, Norman Rockwell painted Rosie with her riveting gun, lunch pail, and her foot on a copy of Hitler's Mein Kampf for the 'Saturday Evening Post' and it became part of the War Bond national tour. Rosie the Riveter eventually became the icon of the feminist movement.

Six million women answered the call, 16,000 women worked at the Willow Run facility. By introducing national child care it was a total commitment by the US Government to make work easier for these women. They took care of everything so that there was no excuse for not going to work. By 1943 Willow Run was in full production completing one bomber every 57 minutes.

The Tribute Rosies aren't real Rosies, but they honor the service of women defense workers during WWII. They are a part of the PR arm of the Yankee Air Museum. As such, they go to fairs, docent at the museums, march in parades, and they have a drill team. They offer photo ops and help raise money for the 'Save the Bomber Plant' campaign.

Claire added that in conjunction with the Michigan Aerospace Foundation and the Yankee Air Museum, she is available for Educational Presentations at www.savethebomberplant.org. She also has free tickets to the Yankee Air Museum that are good for one year.

Rosie's lunch box: Spam sandwich, Kool-Aid, pickles and an apple and a banana (Bob's imagination working overtime on the lunch menu)

WARM THE CHILDREN - Membership Vote Scheduled for June 5, 2017

Last Tuesday, May 16th, our Kiwanis Club and Foundation Board approved our continued support of Warm The Children (WTC) Project as its Official Sponsor and as a multi-year Kiwanis project. NEXT STEP: A vote by the membership. If approved by the membership, WTC would be a multi-year Kiwanis Club and Foundation project. Membership support requires a 2/3 affirmative of the members at the scheduled meeting after a minimum of 14-day notice. The vote is scheduled for Monday, June 5, 2017, during the regularly scheduled noon meeting of the membership.

The following information is for your review in preparation for the vote on June 5th.

Board Action: Approved the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc. (KCAAF) official adoption of the role of on-going multi-year Official Sponsorship, administrator and fiduciary party responsible for Warm the Children Program (WTC), including KCAAF's receipt of tax deductible donor contributions for WTC. These contributions will continue to be placed in a third-party depository, segregated from other KCAAF funds. This will motion include the following six (6) action steps.

1. Commit $2,500 for administration and promotional support for WTC for the 2017-2018 year including the $520 remaining from the grant from AAACF. These funds are to be utilized as follows; (1) $750 for materials and supplies, (2) $1,750 for promotional advertising activity in addition to whatever the Ann Arbor News/Mlive provides. (With the objective of returning the capacity of WTC to serve approximately 3,000 children as previously done).
2. Continue the existence of the Warm the Children Committee as a sub-committee of Children and Youth Services Committee.
3. Authorize Mary Stewart and one or more other Kiwanis members to have authority to manage the account with Old National Bank including the disbursement of funds to vendors.
4. Authorize the utilization of a Pay-Pal account or similar arrangement to facilitate contributions for support of the program with direct deposit to Old National Bank.
5. Encourage the participation of Kiwanis members as volunteers for the WTC project as shoppers and other areas as needed including administration.
6. Schedule a vote by the general membership of our Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation per bylaws and policy manual.

Background Information: WTC Sub-committee members are, Larry French, Mary Stewart, Gordon Beeman, Bob Carr, Lynne Lande, and Max Ziegler.

The Warm the Children Program (WTC) started in Washtenaw County by the Ann Arbor News. The Ann Arbor News/Mlive provided administrative and promotional media for Warm the Children program through stories, advertising and promotional material. In the past four years, the administrative role was eliminated and Mary Stewart stepped in to do the administrative and operational control of the program. The Ann Arbor News/Mlive continued to provide the advertising and promotional activities through the online newspaper. The Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor has participated in WTC as volunteers for almost 18 years.

WARM THE CHILDREN - Membership Vote Scheduled for June 5, 2017

The funds donated to WTC to purchase the clothing; etc. was and is maintained in an account at Old National Bank. The Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation (AAACF) supported the program by providing its tax-exempt status as a sponsor of the program whereby all donations to the program for purchases of clothing are tax deductible. In addition, AAACF and Mary Stewart are the authorized account signers for the payment to retail organizations, currently Walmart, honoring the vouchers for purchases of children's clothing. As previously stated, the donor funds are recognized as a tax deduction through the tax-exempt status of the AAACF.

The donations that are collected each year are used for the following year. For example, currently over $230,000 is in the account at Old National Bank and it is anticipated that over $200,000 will in the account for the 2017-2018 program with approximately 2,000 children to be served. It is important to understand that vouchers authorizing funds to be expended for children will be limited to the funds in the account at Old National Bank. For example, in this coming year that the children to be served will be limited to about 2,000 children based on the $200,000 anticipated expenditures. The Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc. (KCAAF) will never be at risk for basic funding requirements of WTC.

In September 2016, the Ann Arbor News/Mlive discontinued the sponsorship of WTC but has agreed to continue the promotional advertising through stories and ads if WTC officially found a new sponsor. Likewise, the AAACF continued to provide their fiduciary responsibility in the WTC until a new tax exempt sponsor has committed, especially after they were aware of the involvement of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc.

On December 20, 2016, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc. approved the Foundation becoming the official sponsor of WTC for the 2016-2017 project year. Our Kiwanis Board approved the creation of the WTC Committee and a report and recommendation from the Committee no later than the June 2017.

The AAACF donated $1,000 to the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc. for promotional and administrative support of the WTC for the 2016-2017 year. In addition, the Board of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Foundation, Inc. authorized an additional $1,500 for the project in 2016-2017. Currently, $480 of these funds have been expended for supplies and promotion.

In Summary, the historical roles adopted by various entities and agencies are as follows:

- Ann Arbor News/Mlive - Provide administrative, promotional and advertising support.
- Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation - Provide fiduciary and tax exempt status support, assisting in confirmation of expenditures to retail organizations for purchase of clothing and providing the use of a PayPal account for receipt of contributions.
- Old National Bank - Serves as a third-party depository of funds, promotional support and tracking of donations for purchase of clothing for children.
