Kiwanis®

CLUB OF ANN ARBOR

Volume 9, Issue 9

November 27, 2017

Today's Program...

Hall of Honor Installations

HALL OF HONOR, Past President Lynne Lande, ceremony chair. "Humanitarians in Detail" is today's headline for our most recent inductees; it's our most prestigious member tribute. Gordon Beeman, Jerry Brown, and George Gilligan share service as past presidents: a 20-plus-year Kiwanis membership (10 years in our club), and attending a minimum of 80% of our meetings. Most noteworthy—exemplary club leadership and service...

Imagine 1. A nearly century-old organization, Michigan's largest Kiwanis club, and employing nine people without a Personnel Manual or an Investment Policy Statement? Thank you, major contributor, Past President Gordon Beeman;

Imagine 2. A career leader in every major club project from SA Bell Ringing to Sale Co-chair to Herding Cats (the club past presidents) to sporting the club's consistently, brightest smile? Thank you, Past President Jerry Brown; and Imagine 3. Bringing sound-thinking and financial expertise to the board and the club, and overseeing the club golf outing and rolling service strikes on our K-Bowling teams? Thank you, Past President George Gilligan!

Presenters Larry French (Gordon and Anna Beeman), Clarence Dukes (Jerry and Lyn Brown) and Cliff Sheldon (George and Mary Gilligan), all past presidents, introduced spouses and families and highlighted the outside-the-club, outstanding academic, and community service honors earned by each recipient. Congratulations!

Next Week's Program...

Claire and Rosies

Spotted..

In the Detroit Thanksgiving Day Parade: our own Claire Dahl in her Rosie uniform marching with her arm flexed and a big smile! Neat!

Fines...

Any reckless Buckeye nut who interrupted the meeting agenda was fined for being a wayward sputterer. Guess who?

Happy Dollars...

- ☺ Past President Lynne Lande was especially happy to hear Past President Dave Drake on-the-air on Michigan Radio talking about his participation with grandchildren in tow with Meals on Wheels on Thanksgiving Day (click here for link to article). The two past presidents hugged! Log on!
- ☺ News flash: Past Michigan District Governor, club member Bob Snider recounted his health recovery due to modern medicine that has improved his listening, hearing and seeing ability two and four fold! Wow!
- ☺ Old editor enjoyed the Perfect Storm at his son's trombone teacher's abode on Thanksgiving (Jon Holfretre & Susan Hamady) and was reminded of his son's prowess which dad had forgotten.
- ☺ Tuesday, January 2, 2018 meeting, at Kiwanis West, is not downtown as implied. The flyer with said information sent the creator to bed without his warm milk and cookies! He suffered withdrawal but survived!

Known worldwide as the place for the "funkiest" gift.

CENTENNIAL MEMORY GEM

Club Hall of Honor When?

Wesley McKenzie

Wesley B. McKenzie (left), Executive Director of the Washtenaw County Red Cross, joined the club in 1980 and proposed a club Hall of Honor to be patterned after a similar Red Cross program. Back then, being elected a club board member and/or officer was the sole formal club member recognition. There was some reluctance to change protocol (heard that one before?) but Wes was placed in charge of a committee to research a Hall of Honor and the charter installation occurred in 1985.
