TODAY'S PROGRAM...

St. Joseph Mercy Cancer Program and Research

Max Ziegler

Max Ziegler introduced today's program, St. Joseph Mercy Cancer Program and Research with speakers: Beth LaVasseur, Director of Oncology Services and Katie Elliott, Director of Development.

Beth LaVasseur presented a brief history of the St. Joseph Mercy Cancer Program within Trinity Health, whose mission is to serve together in the spirit of the Gospel to be a compassionate and transforming healing presence within our communities. And whose vision for cancer care is to serve the community by striving to prevent cancer and treating those affected by cancer with competence, compassion, and respect.

The Hematology/Oncology program started in the late 1950s; the 14-bed Oncology Unit opened in 1962; the first official cancer registry started in Michigan in 1961; Dr. John Nixon named department director in 1965, and in 1978, cooperative group clinical trials began. She cited notable accomplishments as St. Joe's Ann Arbor serving as the regional hub for cancer services for Saint Joseph Mercy; being the first center in the State to implement Cyber-knife technology, and introducing oncology patient navigator roles in Nursing (2005) and in Financial Services (2009). It is a leader in national research trials as one of only 34 National Cancer Institute Community Oncology Research Programs (NCORP) in the U.S. It heads the Michigan Cancer Research Consortium of 150 researchers and 14 hospitals, and serves 3,400 patients annually with 20,000 patient visits.

Katie Elliott continued with a description of "Life is Remarkable", the campaign to transform cancer care. This is a $10 Million partnership with the community to raise money for capital—$5 Million, Operating Funds—$2 Million, and an Endowment of $3 Million. $6.6 Million has been raised to date. She reminded our members of the 2018 Holiday Ball, which will support the Campaign.

Many of our members stood to be recognized as having been affected by cancer, and many of those who stood have been treated in the Cancer Treatment Center at St. Joseph Mercy. Ms. Elliott showed us pictures of the new addition to their facility which will, when opened, enhance their ability to treat patients in our area.

A Special Election and the Annual General Election of Board Officers and Directors was held on Monday, May 7, 2018. All candidates were elected by a majority vote. The results are as follows:

PROSPECTIVE MEMBER...

Carol Lynn Presley has submitted a membership application that will be considered at this month's board meeting. She is sponsored by Joe Medrano, co-sponsored by Ellen Webb, and endorsed by Dale Leslie. Carol lives in Milford, is retired from Pittsfield, and is now self-employed as the owner of Carol's VIP Adventures. First publication.

In the words of endorser Dale Leslie...

A NEW MEMBER IS ENTHUSIASTIC! Carol Lynn Presley, a frequent Thrift Sale volunteer, will be an outstanding new member of the club. She is an independent, professional event planner, especially of short durations and destinations. Carol planned senior activities for the Pittsfield Township Senior Center until retiring in 2014. She is a close friend of a past Kiwanis Michigan District Governor and club member, Joe Medrano. They met at the Pittsfield center about 20 years ago when Joe and his late wife, Runelda, were members. An enthusiastic idea person, Carol has agreed to serve on the Program Committee for our Centennial Celebration. Welcome!

FINES...

Dan Dever proposed a fine on Ken for making Charlie walk back to give him a copy of his report. Al Gallup proposed a fine on all those who deserted the children of the world by going South of Toledo and West of Coldwater seeking warmth for the winter. Nick Dever proposed a fine for Al's not mentioning east or north. Max Ziegler proposed a fine for all lawyers who don't know that in winter, warmth can't be looked for in the east and north. Fred Sanchez proposed a fine for all those who voted because they should be happy to pay a fine for having the good fortune to be able to vote.

HAPPY DOLLARS...

☺ Luke Panning is happy because he visited his brother's graduation from Army Basic Training at Ft. Jackson, South Carolina, where he graduated at the top of his class with honors (from the same company that Luke graduated from nine years ago,) and now is at Ft. Huachuca for intelligence school and wants to be an airborne Ranger.

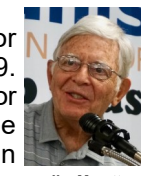

Luke Panning

☺ Emily Allhouse is happy for Carla and Mary and anyone else who helped with the Scholarship Luncheon while she was visiting her family down in Texas. She is also happy for her trip to Las Vegas and that she returned all in one piece with her cellphone and credit cards.

☺ Claire Dahl is happy that Sherry Springer, among all the other good things he did for the club, brought Bud Roberts to us. She is also happy to be marching with the Rosies in the Tulip Festival this weekend in Holland, MI, and making good corners in preparation for the march in Washington, D.C. on the fourth of July.

☺ Jim Meretta is glad to donate a dollar to announce that Measure for Measure will have its 30th annual concert in Hill Auditorium on May 19. Jim, Dan Burroughs and Rick Hendricks have tickets you can buy for $12. He is also happy about the Brazeal Dennard Chorale, who will be participating with the concert. There will be special presentation by Dan Burroughs at the concert.

Jim Meretta

Bud Roberts

☺ Bud Roberts is happy about a message to the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor from the Dexter Lions Club, thanking us for Bud's having gone to a meeting with a couple of bags of used eyeglasses and promising more in the future. In a given year, the Lions Clubs International recycles over 30 million pairs of used eyeglasses. They also recycle hearing aids. Thanks, Bud!

☺ Joe Medrano is very happy after attending an excellent production at the Dio Theater in Pinckney with other Kiwanians.

☺ Larry Dittmar is happy that the First Baptist Church in Ann Arbor will host a harpsichord recital of Bach and Handel on Thursday, May 10 at 12:15. He is also happy about the Brazeal Dennard Chorale.

☺ Charlie Phibbs is happy to thank the Kiwanis Young Professionals who volunteered at the Ann Arbor Western spaghetti dinner held at the High Point school in Ann Arbor, which was a great success, in spite of the fact that it was the first time in 15 years that he hadn't cooked for it.

☺ Don Kossick is happy to thank all those who helped out at the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Scholarship Day Luncheon and Awards Presentation last week. He is also happy, as we all are, that Al Gallup is back with those creative fines.

Don Kossick

ROTARY GRACED BY THE PRESENCE OF THREE KIWANIANs...

Bob Gray reports—This may be a first with three Kiwanians in the Rotary weekly newsletter. The Kiwanians are keeping a close watch on those Rotarians. Claire was “in her element” and gave an excellent Rosie performance at this event. (Photo by Karen Kerry)

D6380 ROTARIANS ENJOY SPRING FLING

Dan Romanchik | May 5, 2018 | Member News

A great time was had by all at the 2018 Spring Fling, held in conjunction with the District 6380 convention this weekend, at the Yankee Air Museum on Thursday, May 3. Rotarians from all around the district enjoyed the many hors d'oeuvres as they wandered through the most interesting, educational and enlightening exhibits.

Then, they were WOWed by Claire Dahl, who talked about the amazing feats of the Rosies and how the women are having their stories recorded for posterity. Our thanks go to the planning committee for the District 6380 convention for putting such a great event together and inviting us to join the fun. We will all wear our Rosie scarves, with the Rotary Wheel as the polka dots, with pride.

Bob Gray, Claire Dahl, and Susan Smith-Gray give the Rosie salute at the District 6380 Spring Fling.
