CLUB OF ANN ARBOR

Volume 9, Issue 14

January 2, 2018

Today's Program...

Celebrating Our Success

Jerry Brown introduced a condensed video of our club's final gala celebration at the Kiwanis Center Downtown held on September 28, 2017. Captioned as "Celebrating Our Success Past and Future," the video was produced by videographer Jim Campbell, whom Jerry introduced at our luncheon.

The video began by recounting the club's successful beginnings as relayed by Sheridan Springer. Chartered in 1921 with 60 members, the club raised funds through card parties to benefit Mott Hospital and also sold copies of the Ann Arbor News with a special front and rear page depicting club activities. The Kiwanis rummage sale began in 1927, held in vacant downtown buildings, and moved to the Armory in 1948. Sherry described the process of purchasing the Kiwanis Center Downtown from the Swisher family in the mid-1960s for a total price of $60,000, payable $5,000 per year.

Kathy Barden-Perlberg followed Sherry, recognizing our marvelous members and vivacious volunteers. Kathy, wearing her Kiwanis work apron to emphasize the endless hours and years of service to the club and community by our volunteers, focused on the fifth object of Kiwanis, which describes altruistic service as a means of building better communities. Kathy dedicated her talk to her father, Robert Barden Sr., the only club member not only to serve as president but also to have both a son and daughter serve as club president.

The September evening was capped by Peter Schork, describing our commitment to the future. Peter described the leasing of a second Kiwanis location in 2011 to enhance our capacity for storage, sorting and recycling. Peter described our need to become more of a business as we hired a permanent sales manager and added staff. Peter recognized Burt and Sally Lamkin for their pioneering of our voucher program as well as Bob Carr and Ellen Webb who continued vouchers. This year alone, the voucher program assisted 383 families in need and provided goods valued at over $70,000. The acquisition of Kiwanis Center West tripled our retail space while providing ample parking and sorting space as well as suitable facilities for club meetings. In 96 years of giving, our club has had over $8.8 million in sales and has donated over $6 million to those in need.

The full video of the celebration is at www.YouTube.com/WATCHMANOFTHETRACKS. Once at this site, click on the "playlists" tab and then click on the video labeled as "Kiwanis."

Next Week's Program...

January 8—Hixson Awards. Presenter: Harry Cross.

Meetings...

Membership Growth & Education, the Sales Steering Committee and Warm the Children will all meet after the club luncheon next week, January 8.

Jim Campbell, videographer for the September 28 event, and Special Guest for this Kiwanis Meeting Program, and Program MC Jerry Brown.

Guests at Our Club...

We were blessed with numerous guests, introduced by Ken Hillenburg.

Ken turned to Ellen Webb, who asked her visiting family members from Wisconsin and Minnesota to stand and be recognized: Robin Webb, Erin Webb, Brian Webb and Millie Webb.

Ken introduced Luz Snider, wife of Bob Snider, and Arno Buhner, husband of Pat Buhner. Mark Levin, husband of Eloise Levin, also joined us.

Three Circle K members were also our luncheon guests: Melissa Zhou, Courtney Beauchamp and Jill Davidson. Charlie Phibbs, visiting Kiwanian—and soon-to-be-inducted member of our club—was also our guest.

Hospitality...

Max Ziegler asked for a moment of silence in honor of past Kiwanian Jim Wheaton, who died on December 17. Max also reported that we have just learned of Jeanette Okuley's heart attack on December 3. Jeanette has asked that there be no cards, phone calls, or visitors.

Announcements...

- Garry Evans congratulated all Kiwanians, Kiwanis volunteers, family and friends who rang bells for the Salvation Army on December 23. It was a good day with big numbers, augmented by an anonymous 2.5 x match (with the match, a gift to the Salvation Army bucket of $10 became a donation of $25). The grand total of bucket donations, not counting the match, was $10,583.
- Hersey Kiss Golden Bells were awarded to bell ringers at the top three locations: In third place was Kroger—Maple Road, North Door ($1,030); second, TJ Maxx ($1,126); and in first place, Kroger—Plymouth Road ($1,298).
- It was a special honor to have Wally Niemann at our luncheon. Garry honored Wally as the "Bell Ringer of the Year." Wally has been a member for more than 65 years and has been ringing bells with the club for the Salvation Army since Kiwanis started bell ringing. Acknowledging his introduction earlier in the program, Wally told us that the worst thing about getting old is standing up.
- President-elect William Hampton, who ran the meeting, announced January birthdays. In addition to birthdays of our club members, visiting Kiwanian Charlie Phibbs was recognized for his birthday on January 5. William told us that Eloise Lavin's birthday is January 8, the birthday of Elvis Presley. But Eloise denied this special affiliation with the King of Rock and Roll, claiming to be born January 5. William also proudly announced that January 4 is his 34th wedding anniversary to his wife, Esther.
- There was no interclub report.

Garry Evans and Wally Niemann

Fines...

Garry Evans moved that anyone who can't match Wally Niemann's service to the club of more than 65 years be fined. We all paid.

Nick Dever attempted to fine Wally Niemann, but the effort backfired since no one would second the motion. Then brother Dan moved to modify the motion, requiring Nick to pay the fine. Dan's motion passed, and Nick reluctantly paid.

Happy Dollars...

- ☺ Dale Leslie was happy to have attended the Rose Bowl 46 years ago on January 2; he then entered the US Army the very next day. Three months later the Army sent him to Alaska and it was "all downhill from there."
- ☺ Sherry Springer was happy to be at the same club luncheon as Wally Niemann, who has the most seniority of any current Kiwanian in our club. Wally joined in 1952. Sherry is #2, joining in 1960.
- ☺ Betty Jean Harper (aka "Betty the Buckeye") contributed $1 because Claire Dahl extended good wishes to Betty for the Ohio State Buckeyes. Betty kicked in another $1 for the privilege of sharing her rendition of the Ohio State fight song.
- ☺ Lynne Lande was happy to have received a Christmas letter from Fern Williams, surviving spouse of longtime member Ron Williams, in response to the Christmas card sent to Fern with club member signatures. For the first time in 50 years, Fern did not send out a Christmas letter in 2016 following Ron's death. Fern explains in her Christmas letter that she and Ron met at a broom dance at Ohio State in 1952 and were married on June 15, 1954, four days after their Ohio State graduation. The address is:
Ms. Fern E Williams
3344 Oakwood Village Dr. E.
Springfield, Ohio 45503
- ☺ Bob Snider happily expressed nostalgia about the type of weather he had when living in Fairbanks, Alaska. The Fairbanks weather was very similar to what we are currently experiencing in Michigan. Bob worked for a weather bureau in Fairbanks, and his daily forecast was invariably "Clear as a bell, cold as hell."
- ☺ Ellen Webb contributed multiple happy dollars for her family members' visit.
- ☺ Fred Sanchez was pleased with the Michigan State bowl victory over Washington State, and Fred also is a fan of Jim Harbaugh and is happy with the Michigan defense.
- ☺ Kathy Barden-Perlberg was happy that the Kiwanis newsletter still comes out in paper, which permits her to review it joyfully most every week with her father, Robert Barden Sr. She was especially happy to see the centennial memory gem that appeared in our last newsletter, written by brother Bob in honor of Gerald (Gerry) Lutz. Gerry was virtually blind, but that did not slow down his good spirits nor his decades of service through Kiwanis.
- ☺ Kathie Wilder was happy to be back home from her holiday trip to visit family and friends in North Dakota, where the low temperature registered a frigid -45 degrees.

A2Y Chamber Early Edition Tech Talk...

The Early Edition breakfast series begins the 2018 year by bringing together leaders in the Technology industry to discuss how the changes and opportunities in the Tech Sector in 2018 may impact our community. Location: Kensington Hotel, 3500 S. State Street. When: January 17, 7:00-8:45am. Cost: $25 for members (all Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor members are members of the A2Y Chamber).

Something To Do On a Cold Winter's Day...

Visit the Museum on Main Street and learn about the history of our club. Dale Leslie is a member of the Society board of directors. Go to washtenawhistory.org for more info.

Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary & More! A Century of Community Service Clubs

Rotary International's slogan is Service Above Self. Kiwanis is Serving the Children of the World. The Lions Club's motto is even simpler— We Serve. This exhibit revolves around the Ann Arbor Rotary Club's celebration of 100 years of their history, dedicated volunteers and great work. The spotlight also shines on the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor (celebrating 96 years), the Ann Arbor Host Lions Club (celebrating 88 years), the Salvation Army (Ann Arbor branch celebrating 121 years), and other fraternal and community service organizations. They have many common causes and one core connection - they are run by volunteers. They serve the community and those in need by raising money and donating their resources, skills, talent and time. Not only during the holidays but all year round.

The Museum on Main Street, 500 N Main Street, at the corners of Beakes, E. Kingsley and Main Street.

Hours are Saturday & Sunday, 12 Noon - 4pm and weekdays by appointment. Groups are welcome at this family-friendly exhibit. Call 734-662-9092.

Exhibit opens Sunday, December 3, 12 Noon to 4 PM
