TODAY'S PROGRAM...

Washtenaw County Update

Jane Talcott

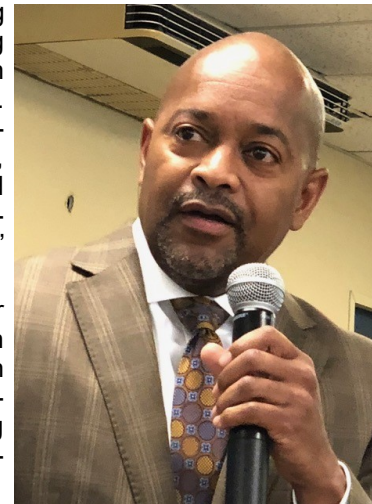

Jane Talcott introduced today's speaker, Greg Dill, Washtenaw County Administrator. Greg Dill has degrees in business administration and years of experience in local government. He was appointed Washtenaw County Administrator in 2016. This is his home community, which he cares about deeply. Greg thanked Kiwanis for our dedication to community service, thanked his mother for being his "rock" growing up, and his wife for 23 years of love and support.

Greg was pleased to report that voters have passed four millages to support road repairs, community mental health services, public safety and justice, and veteran services. In the current environment of increasing expenditures and decreasing revenues, fiscal stewardship is both challenging and critical. Using a four-year budget cycle helps with planning and best use of resources.

Greg talked about the Equity Initiative, which includes racial issues, but also inequity in dealing with gender and with the elderly, especially those living out county. One of Greg Dill's themes is caring about and serving the whole county. He talked about "east of US 23" having different challenges and fewer resources than Ann Arbor and the need to balance that out. For example, an African American male living east of US 23 has a seventeen year shorter life expectancy than an African American male living west of the highway. There are also pockets of poverty in the rural western part of the county.

We need to remember that though Ann Arbor has lots of resources and has been named the "smartest city in the world"(!), we are one county-wide community of 360,000 residents.

The new strategic plan, "One Washtenaw County" deals with education disparity, transportation issues, affordable housing, mental health needs, and development of talent throughout the county. It will provide effective leadership to create positive outcomes in these areas of need and answer the question, "Do these initiatives improve conditions for all our population?" with a resounding "Yes".

Greg Dill

GUESTS AT OUR CLUB...

We are happy that you were with us today and hope you will come again soon.

HOSPITALITY...

Fred Sanchez reported that volunteer Karen Hadwin is doing well after lung surgery; Lynne Lande's son Steve Carbeck is home and recovering well from his heart attack; Dick Benedek took a fall, but is OK and here with us today; Esther Hampton also fell, while on vacation, is recovering well and with us today. We welcomed Sue Dailey back! We are thankful for healing and health for all of these people, and hold in our hearts all those who are dealing with chronic illness or loss.

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

- Kiwanis Outreach Program: Kathy Barden Perlberg reminded us that about 25 Rotary members will be our special guests this Saturday. They will gather for a tour of our building and opportunity to shop. At noon they will be served lunch and hear a presentation about Kiwanis and our mission in the community. Please give our Rotarian guests a warm welcome if you are at the Sale this Saturday.
- Ellen Webb needs one person for 8/9 , two people for 8/23, and one for 8/30 to help with vouchers.

SOCIAL EVENTS...

- Annual Summer Picnic is this Sunday, 12-2pm at the Kiwanis Center. Come at noon. Bring a dish to pass. Ribs and chicken and beverages will be furnished. There will be shade, and we can go indoors if the weather doesn't cooperate. Bring your family. We want volunteers and friends of Kiwanis to come, too. Contact Mary Stewart if you haven't signed up, or just come.

- Annual Tiger Baseball Game Outing is Saturday, August 11. Fred Sanchez may have one or two tickets. Contact Fred ASAP if you are interested and he will give you details. Those already signed up have gotten more instructions from Fred via email.

- Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Golf Outing: George Gilligan reminds golfers to get your foursomes together and save the date Thursday September 13th at Pierce Lake. We also need hole sponsors. It's always a great day! See George for more info and to sign up.

FINES...

Unfortunately, the editor was filling her plate at the buffet and missed the beginning of a string of fines and counter-fines. They all had to do with President William's outstanding white suit and matching headwear, which was mistakenly referred to as a "skull cap". After we all paid, including President William, he explained that his headwear is called a "kufi", and that he wears the kufi in honor of his ancestors and all that they endured. That piece of information and its meaning to William was worth way more than the quarters we all contributed to the fine bucket.

President William V.
Hampton

HAPPY DOLLARS...

- ☺ Lynne Lande started off Happy Dollars with a sad word that she had to "put down" their beloved Newfie, O'Malley, last week. But the best news is that her son Steve is recovering from a heart attack caused by blockage of the major arteries in his heart.
- ☺ Larry French was happy that he did not fall for a bogus email demanding $3,200 in Bitcoin, with the threat of putting out on the Internet that he watches porn. Larry went to the FBI and learned this is a common Internet crime. Larry has an article about this type of crime, if you want more information. (BTY, Larry says he does NOT watch porn).
- ☺ Clar Dukes was remembering this day in 1953, when he was preparing to go to fight in the Korean War. As he stood in line, word came that Korean Armistice had been signed, and he didn't have to fight.
- ☺ Dale Leslie reported attending Doug Olsen's memorial service in Dundee this past Saturday. Doug and his father Don Olsen were both active members of our Kiwanis Club. Doug was a Methodist minister and served two churches in Ann Arbor before transferring to Dundee.
- ☺ Juliet Taylor, daughter of President William, wearily but happily reported she and her son Shiloh, and her sister Cynthia drove seventeen hours straight from Ft. Worth, Texas to visit their Ann Arbor family for a week.
- ☺ Fred Sanchez was happy for a Michigan hat with a brim, given to him by Clar Dukes. Fred was ushering at the recent soccer match at the Big House, and fainted again, in spite of drinking 11 bottles of water. Fred hopes this hat will give him more protection from the sun.
